NOVEMBER 2013

Remembering Pearl Harbor Veterans: A slideshow presentation with Pearl Harbor Survivor, EMC (SW) Stuart N. Hedley, United States Navy (Ret.)

Born October 29, 1921, Hedley was aboard the USS West Virginia when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. Sponsored by the Spring Valley Lions Club, come join us for a memorable event not to be missed.

Saturday November 30 @ 10am

Baby & Toddler Story Time: Sing Along with Mr. Dave!
Appropriate for newborns to age 3. Siblings always welcome.

Wednesdays @10:30am

Preschool Story Time & Craft: Listen to stories from Mr. Dave and join Ms. Kathy for crafts afterwards.

Appropriate for ages 3-5. Siblings always welcome.
Thursdays @11am

Stories For Everyone / Cuentos para todos: Stories told in English and Spanish with a craft afterwards.

Appropriate for all kids (bilingual or not) grades K-3.
Mondays @3pm

Teen Tuesdays: Play Wii games, surf the Internet, listen to music, hang out, do homework, or bring out the creative side with our crafty projects. Appropriate for those in grades 6-12.

Tuesdays @3pm

Young Adult Friday: High school has a hectic pace with homework, sports, and clubs – and that isn't even covering the social aspect. Take a break at the library! Hang out with your friends, play games, surf the internet, and listen to music. We need your help in planning future YA Fridays so come give us your input. High school only!
Friday November 15 @ 3:30pm

Friends of the Library Bookstore (open library hours):
The Friends of The Library supports the library through fundraising (book sales) and volunteering. Look for our monthly blowout sales. Your purchases help! Thank you!

Coffee & Conversation Book Club: To turn things around a bit, the club is reading two short works from Lois Lowry: Number The Stars and The Giver. New members always welcome!

First Friday of the month @10:30am

Classic Movie Night: This month's selection is about a man who gives up a kingdom for a woman. Refreshments provided by the Friends of the Library.

First Thursday of the month @5pm

Fight OCD, Fight Stigma: A support group that meets monthly. Please call Ramone at 619-417-8858 for more information and to register.

Thursday November 14 @6pm

Scams & Cons: How Not To Be A Victim: During the holiday season, crime goes up. Join Terry Ambrose, Examiner columnist of "Crime & Courts" as he discusses the newest scams, including on how navigate potentially risky websites. Learn what steps you can take to protect your wallet.

Saturday November 2 @10am

Crime Scene Photography: With 45 years of experience in photography and 18 years with the Los Angeles District Attorney's office, Robert Feuerstein is amply prepared to speak on the subject. Join him in this fascinating program on how photographers play a critical role in gathering evidence at a crime scene. This program is appropriate for ages 13 and older.

Saturday November 16 @ 10am

Chess Club: Come and play chess at the library. Open to all ages and all levels of expertise – even if you've never played. Rene' will teach you! New program!

Wednesday November 20 @ 3pm

Gateway Computer Classes: Free internet classes taught in Arabic. Please contact Sara Arabo for more information and class schedule at 619-469-2151.

Tuesday & Thursday mornings 8-9:30am
